

7 Roxbury Place,
Glen Rock, N. J.,
Mar. 16, 1927.

Dear Mrs. Hall:

This morning I read in "The Paterson Morning Call" about your suit against "The Mirror" and I don't think anything has ever pleased me more. The "Mirror" gave you, what we call in plain English, a "rotten deal" and you are not the only ones either. It tries it's best to copy from "The News" and it seems the editor only has one thing in mind and that is to sell copies nomatter whether the articles are true or not. I HATE that paper and whenever my newsdealer sends it to me I promptly send it back and told him more than once that I wouldn't have such mental garbage in my house. I am so glad so glad I can't tell you and I do hope you win your case against those liars.

I sent you a letter, not of sympathy, but of encouragement, when things looked blackest to you because I have always admired you, have always said that "l-a-d-y" is stamped right on your face. You sent me a card of thanks which I prize highly.

I worked around New Brunswick for the O'Brian Detective Agency and that was just after the affair and I think you were in Italy at the time. I always wanted to see you, from afar, but never had an opportunity as you had not returned when my work there was finished.

I do hope that you will be the means of putting that horrible, lying, crazy paper out of existence. I also hope that you will be able to live the rest of your life in peace and that no other fool will start something which he knows he cannot finish.

Very truly yours,

Yvonne Stahl Peetzer.